Grammar Review: Conditionals with IF

How would you finish these sentences?

If you were sick, then I _____.

If you are cold, then I _____.

Conditionals with Mixed Tenses:
1. If the conditional is an "unreal" situation in the past, then the result is would + simple present

    If you were sick, then I would make you soup.

2. If the conditional is "unreal" in the present, then the result is simple future.

    If you are cold, then I will give you a blanket.

Listening:
Listen to the song, "The Way I Am" by Ingrid Michaelson.

First time listening: Don't look at the words. Listen for any conditionals.

Second time listening: Underline any conditionals you hear and notice.

Lyrics:

If you were falling, then I would catch you

You need a light, I'd find a match

'Cause I love the way you say good morning

And you take me the way I am

If you are chilly, here take my sweater

Your head is aching, I'll make it better

'Cause I love the way you call me baby

And you take me the way I am

I'd buy you Rogaine

When you start losing all your hair

Sew on patches to all you tear

'Cause I love you more than

I could ever promise

And you take me the way I am

You take me the way I am
